Explore These Hidden Ruins - With An Expert Guide To Your Best Pictures

Discover an ancient American civilization - an empire in the remote Southwest.

They came in search of water, game, a place to live. A few influenced the rest to build first one, then several multi-story Great Houses - by hand. Were they storage sites? Palaces? Shrines?

After 250 years in this unforgiving landscape, most moved north, leaving the monumental sandstone buildings and kivas. Finally, after decades of drought and fighting over scraps, everyone else left. We don't know exactly why - they left no written language.

Ten lucky photographers will explore and shoot these spectacular ruins, with professional guidance to the best locations.

Our base is Bloomfield's highly-rated Best Western Territorial Inn & Suites. With many excellent food choices in the area, there's no shortage of culinary adventure either.
